ORDER

AND NOW, this 4th day of January, 2024, upon consideration of Plaintiff Corry M. Brooks's Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (ECF No. 1), his Prisoner Trust Fund Account Statement (ECF No. 6), pro se Complaint (ECF No. 2), and Motion for Appointment of Counsel (ECF No. 3), it is ORDERED that:

1. Leave to proceed in forma pauperis is GRANTED pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.
2. Corry M. Brooks, #20160000921, shall pay the full filing fee of $350 in installments, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b), regardless of the outcome of this case. The Court directs the Warden of Lancaster County Prison or other appropriate official to assess an initial filing fee of 20% of the greater of (a) the average monthly deposits to Brooks's inmate account; or (b) the average monthly balance in Brooks's inmate account for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of this case. The Warden or other appropriate official shall calculate, collect, and forward the initial payment assessed pursuant to this Order to the Court with a reference to the docket number for this case. In each succeeding month when the amount in Brooks's inmate trust fund account exceeds $10.00, the Warden or other appropriate official shall forward payments to the Clerk of Court equaling 20% of the preceding month's income credited to Brooks's inmate account until the fees are paid. Each payment shall refer to the docket number for this case.

3. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Order to the Warden of Lancaster County Prison.

4. The Complaint is DEEMED filed.

5. The Complaint is DISMISSED IN PART WITH PREJUDICE AND IN PART WITHOUT PREJUDICE for the reasons stated in the Court's Memorandum as follows:

a. All official capacity claims against PrimeCare Medical Inc. are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C.

§ 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

b. All individual and official capacity claims against Warden Cheral Steberger, as well as the individual capacity claims against PrimeCare Medical Inc., are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to state a claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

c. All state law claims are DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

6. Brooks may file an amended complaint no later than February 5, 2024. Any amended complaint must identify all defendants in the caption of the amended complaint in addition to identifying them in the body of the amended complaint and shall state the basis for Brooks's claims against each defendant. The amended complaint shall be a complete document that does not rely on the initial Complaint or other papers filed in this case to state a claim. When drafting his amended complaint, Brooks should be mindful of the Court's reasons for dismissing the claims in his initial Complaint as explained in the Court's Memorandum. Brooks may not reassert a claim that has been dismissed with prejudice. Upon the filing of an amended complaint, the Clerk shall not make service until so ORDERED by the Court.

7. The Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to send Brooks a blank copy of the Court's form complaint for a prisoner filing a civil rights action bearing the above civil action number. Brooks may use this form to file his amended complaint if he chooses to do so.

8. If Brooks does not wish to amend his Complaint and instead intends to stand on his Complaint as originally pled, he may file a notice with the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order stating that intent, at which time the Court will issue a final order dismissing the case. Any such notice should be titled "Notice to Stand on Complaint," and shall include the civil action number for this case. See Weber v. McGrogan, 939 F.3d 232, 241 (3d Cir. 2019) ("If the plaintiff does not desire to amend, he may file an appropriate notice with the district court asserting his intent to stand on the complaint, at which time an order to dismiss the action would be appropriate.") (quoting Borelli v. City of Reading, 532 F.2d 950, 951 n.1 (3d Cir. 1976)); In re Westinghouse Sec. Litig., 90 F.3d 696, 703-04 (3d Cir. 1996) (holding "that the district court did not abuse its discretion when it dismissed with prejudice the otherwise viable claims . . . following plaintiffs' decision not to replead those claims" when "[t]he district court expressly warned plaintiffs that failure to replead the remaining claims . . . would result in the dismissal of those claims").

9. If Brooks fails to file any response to this Order, the Court will conclude that Brooks intends to stand on his Complaint and will issue a final order dismissing this case.<sup>1</sup> See Weber, 939 F.3d at 239-40 (explaining that a plaintiff's intent to stand on his complaint may be inferred from inaction after issuance of an order directing him to take action to cure a defective complaint).

10. Brooks's Motion for Appointment of Counsel (ECF No. 3) is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE as premature.

distinct from dismissals under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b) for failure to comply with a court order, which require assessment of the Poulis factors); see also Elansari v. Altria, 799 F. App'x 107, 108 n.1 (3d Cir. 2020) (per curiam) (differentiating "standing on the complaint" from failure to prosecute). Indeed, an analysis under Poulis is not required when a plaintiff willfully abandons the case or makes adjudication impossible, as would be the case when a plaintiff opts not to amend his complaint, leaving the case without an operative pleading. See Dickens v. Danberg, 700 F. App'x 116, 118 n.2 (3d Cir. 2017) (per curiam) ("Where a plaintiff's conduct clearly indicates that he willfully intends to abandon the case, or where the plaintiff's behavior is so contumacious as to make adjudication of the case impossible, a balancing of the Poulis factors is not necessary." (citations omitted)); Baker v. Accounts Receivables Mgmt., Inc., 292 F.R.D. 171, 175 (D.N.J. 2013) ("[T]he Court need not engage in an analysis of the six Poulis factors in cases where a party willfully abandons her case or otherwise makes adjudication of the matter impossible." (citing cases)).
